

Part3: build each word in brackets with the appropriate form by means of using the suffixes.

1. Thailand is a famous (fame) country for rice, corn and cassava.
2. Is this a daily (day) newspaper or a weekly (week) magazine?
3. Don't approach the snake because it is dangerous (danger).
4. His hobby is a collection (collect) of stamps.
5. You should make up your decision (decide) or else you miss the morning train.
decision
6. Don't walk over the carpets in your muddy (mud) boots.
7. Somsamai is the most beautiful (beauty) woman in her class.
8. Is there a good French translation (translate) of Shakespeare's Play?
9. During the summer holidays many children enjoyed their freedom (free).
10. The management (manager) of the National Bank required a capable man.
capable
11. It is impossible for him to tell you the truth. I always think he is a liar (lie).
12. Your ability (able) to solve those problems is almost incredible.
13. His appearance (appear) at the party last night excited everyone.
14. Thomayanti is a well-known novelist (novel) in Thailand.
15. I am not going to give my son the job just because of our relationship (relation).