

For example:

- I must go now.
 - Can you help me?
 - I would rather go alone.
- view. into to.*

3. 2 Let, make, hear, etc.

Certain verbs are followed by an object and the infinitive without to. They are: let, make, see, hear, feel, watch, notice, help (in an informal style).

- She lets her children stay up very late.
- I made them give me the money back.
- I didn't see you come in.

*Gerund won't be
V-ing*

Complete the sentence with the correct form of the verb. (infinitive with to or without to)

1. They didn't let me do it. (do)
2. He ought ^{as} to see the doctor about that. (see)
3. I heard him ^{don} sing a song. (sing)
4. May I watch the film? (watch)
5. Emily agreed to marry Norton. (marry)
6. We decided to run through the forest. (run)
7. I feel so lucky to see the director of the film. (see)

Nice to meet you.

Ex.

4. BOTH GERUND & INFINITIVE

4.1 No Meaning Change

amplification

The meaning of sentence does not change whether you use the gerund or infinitive.

begin continue hate like love prefer start

For example:

- Mariah began to sing.
- Mariah began singing.

I didn't see you come

4.2 Both Gerund & Infinitive - Meaning Change

amplification

The meaning of sentence changes whether you use the gerund or infinitive.

forget regret remember stop try

Coming